Children running around at the end of the service	A child running into something like a table or cabinet, a child tripping and falling over	Children	Once children have been collected from Sunday School and signed out on RollCall, the parents will be responsible for supervising and ensuring the safety of their children. A First Aid Kit is always available in the Sunday School and crèche rooms in case of injury.	Service leader will close with a reminder for parents about this responsibility periodically as deemed necessary.	Jono Pick	Ongoing
Unloading and loading van or cars with Grace Church equipment	Injury through carrying or dropping heavy loads	Any person who helps with setup or setdown	Only those who are physically able carry heavier items (like the clear boxes) and the trolley will be used for the heaviest boxes (like the PA boxes).	Regularly remind anyone helping of these control measures	Jono Pick	Ongoing

Cables for wires at the front of the lecture theatre	People catching wires with their foot and falling over or pulling heavy speakers over which could land on others	Church attendees walking across or around the front of the lecture theatre	Cables are tidily grouped together with cable ties and covered with our rubber protector when they need to cross the walkway.	Those who serve on the PA rota will be reminded of this periodically as deemed necessary.	Jono Pick	Ongoing
Open windows in the lecture theatre	Falling out of an open window	Children	Windows are only open when it's safe to do so (i.e. when there is a service leader/PA operator/musician at the front able to supervise the windows).	The Ministry Team will be asked to be enforcers of this at an annual health and safety briefing each September.	Jono Pick	Ongoing
Transmission of infection or disease	Infection or disease being passed to others at church	All church attendees	Hand sanitiser will be available each week for the service, for crèche and for Sunday School. For communion, hand sanitiser will be used by those serving it and all taking communion. Those folding and distributing service sheets will use hand sanitiser. Those distributing Bibles will use hand sanitiser.	The Ministry Team will be asked to be enforcers of this at an annual health and safety briefing each September. Communion Leaders will be reminded of their responsibilities periodically as deemed necessary.	Jono Pick	Ongoing

King William Court staircases	People falling down the staircase, children leaning over the staircase	Children and those who are infirm	For the infirm there is a lift available instead which is signposted. For children, the Sunday School leaders bring the children down the back staircase which leads straight to the Sunday school classrooms. Children will not run ahead of the leaders and the leaders will spread themselves out amongst the children with one adult at the front and back. The leaders will stop when necessary to allow the slower children catch up so that large gaps do not appear in the line. After Sunday School, the children are collected from the classroom by their parents who are responsible for ensuring their safety on the staircases from then on.	Children's Worker has been asked to enforce this Sunday School procedure	Jono Pick	Ongoing
Fire in the building	People injured or killed by not escaping a fire	All church attendees	If the fire alarm sounds, everyone (those in the main service, in Sunday School and in crèche)	The designated Fire Marshall will organise a yearly notice in the	Jono Pick	Ongoing

			will exit the building immediately and directly via the green running man signs leading to the assembly point (which is on the big patch of grass just to the west of King William Court still within the Naval College). For those who cannot use the stairs to get from the third floor to the ground floor due to impaired mobility, there is a safe area called "King William South Third Floor Refuge 318". There are instructions on a sign marked by a white "R" on a green background in that space. Having checked the spaces Grace Church uses (including the toilets), the Fire Marshall will confirm to the Naval College Fire Officer (indicated in a high visibility jacket) whether anyone from	Sunday services to inform all members of this procedure.

			our group is still in the building. The congregation won't re-enter the building until informed by the Naval College Fire Officer that it's safe to do so. If we cannot re-enter the building, Sunday School and crèche children will be signed out on RollCall to their parents from this assembly point. If a fire is discovered in the building, someone will sound the alarm by breaking the glass on one of the red box fire alarms and calling the fire brigade.
